NEEBG is one of 60 badger protection groups throughout the UK who are affiliated to Badger Trust, which is Reg Charity No 1111440.

Our aim is to protect badgers, their setts and habitats in North East Essex, working with other wildlife protection organisations, statutory authorities, police and landowners.

HOW WE DO THIS.....

There is always plenty to get involved in, and you can do as much or as little as you would like. We could not achieve any of our good and important work without willing and enthusiastic members.

Ways to help Essex badgers:

- 🐾Join North East Essex badger group
- 🐾Become an active member
- 🐾Check setts
- 🐾Attend shows
- 🐾Come to meetings
- 🐾Help with sick and injured badgers
- 🐾Help with the badger hotline
- 🐾Talks and presentations to local groups.

We are always eager to recruit new members who are willing to be active in our work. This doesn't mean you have to be out every day and night or attend every function. One of the most important tasks of our group is regular monitoring of badger setts – a pleasant job which can easily be achieved whilst out with the children or walking the dog!

Subscription rates:

- 🐾Individual £12:50
- 🐾Joint/Family £23

The North East Essex Badger Group is a voluntary organisation dependant on its member's subscriptions, fundraising and individual donations to finance the running of the group and to enable us to continue protecting vulnerable badgers and their setts.

To join us please complete and return the application form overleaf. As soon as we receive your payment we will be able to send you your new member's pack, details of local meetings, hide visits and other news.
